

PASADENA, CA – AUGUST 2015. Obsolescence announcement.

Kinematics is announcing End-of-Life of the Strong Motion Accelerograph Basalt and of the digitizer/recorder Basalt4X/8X. Kinematics decided to discontinue the Basalt series effective January 31, 2015. A limited number of Basalt4X/8X will be available for final sale.

The Basalt series will continue to be supported through January 31, 2020. Kinematics will continue to repair the instruments for as long as components will remain available.

The Basalt is replaced by the Obsidian and the Basalt4X/8X by the Obsidian 4X/8X.
